Mayor Green Wires Protest To Governor Warren Against Parallel Bridge Plan

Daly City was the first county city to respond to a plea from the county planning commission that each of the county's 13 cities wire Governor Warren protesting a parallel bay span and urging a southern crossing.

The telgeram, which was signed by Mayor Paul Green, read as follows:

"The city of Daly City and citizens of Northern San Mateo county strongly urge construction of a southern bay bridge crossing instead of a span parallel with present bay bridge. A southern span would help development of San Mateo county and create less traffic congestion than would a parallel crossing, and in our considered opinion would better serve the needs of the public."

The staff of the Daly City Record was pleased this week when it received a gratifying letter from Mrs. Sanford Larson, publicity chairman of the Woodrow Wilson P.T.A.

Mrs. Larson wrote: "On behalf of the Woodrow Wilson Parent-Teacher Association, I wish to express our sincere thanks to the Daly City Record and its staff. We appreciate your splendid co-operation with us in publishing the news and activities of the unit. It is through this channel that members and citizens in this locality have been informed of the undertakings and progress of the Woodrow Wilson P.T.A. during the past fiscal year. Thank you."

Thank you for the compliment, Mrs. Larson, and thank you for sending your news in promptly each week.

It's Rather Tough On The Builders

Someone had a splashing good time last week end in a new home under construction by the Sterling Building company at Woodrow and Citrus avenues. According to police someone entered the home through a window on the west side. Then with the idea in mind that he or they would get the house finished sooner smeared green paint all over the walls. Then deciding it wasn't a good job took a knife and slashed the walls.

It wasn't very funny to Chris Fenson, of the Sterling Building company, who discovered it Monday, March 21, at 10:35 a.m.

Fight Still Raging On Choice Of Hospital Site

The Peninsula hospital dsitrict board of directors and the manager of the Mills estate are still arguing about where they're going to put a 2-½ million dollar hospital.

The hospital board has selected a site near El Camino Real on the Mills Estate on the basis of reports from the hospital district architect, a consulting mechanical engineer, and two consultants on hospital planning.

The board claims that costs of construction would be far less on this site than on another site on the estate which faces Millbrae avenue.

However, Leslie H. Moore, manager of the Mills estate, refused to sell the hospital district the property it wished, offering instead the Millbrae avenue site, which was turned down by the hospital board.

Condemnation proceedings were instituted this week against the estate by Frank Ingersoll, attorney for the Peninsula hospital district.

Colma Baritone Must Try Again In Talent Quest

"If at first you don't succeed, try, try again" is an old saying which, in many cases, is one well worth following.

Baritone Albert Uhalde of Colma, however, tried, and succeeded, but still he has to try again.

It all happened when Uhalde tied for first place in the San Francisco Talent Quest finals held on the Warfield stage this week. His runner-up was tenor Edward Schembs.

A special "singoff" show will be held at the Warfield Theatre at 8:30 p.m. next Monday when the audience applause, plus the judges' decision will determine whether Schembs or Uhalde will go into the northern California finals to be held at the Fox Theatre April 7, 8 and 9.

Uhlade, 31, who lives at Hillside boulevard, chose "Vision Fugitive" from Massenet's Herodiade" and "Danny Boy" for his songs.

Recreation Dept. Offers Lots Of Fun

Have you ever done a polka or a schottische or a good old-fashioned waltz? Then you will be right at home. If you haven't you don't know what fun you will be missing. There are some 200,000 folk dancers in California alone so put on a comfortable pair of shoes, jeans and slacks, fellows; blouses and skirts, ladies (no hobbles, please), and you are all set. Only the simple dances will be taught first, so everyone will catch on easily.

Come on! Make up a party with your next-door neighbor and join the fun. Let's all circle up for the Signet Ring, Schottische Friday night, April 1, at 8 o'clock. Here we go for more fun than you have had in a long time. Guaranteed!

The program, sponsored by the Daly City Recreation department, will be under the direction of Mrs. Muriele Pabst. Instruction will be held at the Bellevue Avenue Recreation hall from 8 to 10 p.m.

Annual Drive To Raise Funds For Crippled Children Opens This Week

The annual San Mateo county drive to raise funds to help local crippled children opened this week with the mailing out of over 40,000 letters containing the familiar sheets of colorful Easter seals and the distribution to county business firms of over 1,000 counter coin containers.

The county goal of the Crippled Children's Society this year, according to President S. D. Merk, is $40,000. The money is needed, he said, to continue the society's important work of offering year-round aid to the many crippled youngsters who if it were not for the work of the society, might never be given the chance to regain their health.

Most parents, Merk said, cannot afford the expensive treatment necessary to restore the strength in the withered arms and legs of their handicapped children.

The society, Merk said, is always ready to give complete aid to parents or families in the county who seek to give their youngsters the opportunity which lack of finances might otherwise deny them.

It was Merk's opinion that the small donations given each year by county residents during the Easter seal drive is money well invested.

The hundred Easter seals that are mailed in each letter means, according to Merk, that donors to this year's drive are expected to contribute one dollar or more. Merk urged that donations be mailed beck promptly so that the current campaign can be completed within the allotted three weeks period.

ATTEMPTED BURGLARY

McGraw Bros. Offer Reward For Thief Taking Boys' Funds

Someone should have a very guilty conscience after taking a gallon jar from McGraw Bros. drug store last Sunday. It wasn't empty, by any means, nor was it full of wine or perfume. It was half-full of nickels, dimes, and quarters, enough to send some unfortunate youngster to Boys' Summer Camp, or maybe two.

The theft was reported by Elton McGraw last Sunday at 4:55 p.m. According to him the money was taken between 4 and 4:30 p.m.

McGraw brothers are offering a reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of person or persons who took the gallon jar.

CHIEF WARNS OF FIRE DANGER TO CHILDREN

Science has reduced the death-rate from children's diseases phenomenally, but we still permit fire to kill thousands of defenseless youngsters every year, Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy declared in a plea to parents to utilize Spring Clean-Up Week to protect their homes.

The chief pointed out that people still have a feeling that fire, like lightning, strikes haphazardly. He emphasized that fire breaks out where conditions are favorable, where rubbish is allowed to collect or electrical wiring has deteriorated or any number of other hazards have developed from simple negligence.

Burns Leading Killer

Burns are still a leading cause of deaths of small children, accounting for 33 per cent of all home accidental deaths of children under 5, the chief said.

He called upon parents to follow a better safety program at home and join with local civic groups and school authorities to clean out fire hazards in the community. He suggested a few rules for children's protection which are recommended by The National Board of Fire Underwriters:

1. Don't leave children at home alone. Be sure your baby sitter is a mature, reliable person and that she knows how to call the fire department.

Keep Matches Out of Reach

2. Keep young children out of the kitchen if possible. See that all matches are out of their reach, and that pot handles are not protruding beyond the edge of the stove.

3. Allow children at campfires only under your supervision. Very often they lose their footing on sticks or stones around the fire and fall into the flames.

4. Be sure to keep a metal screen in front of the fire place so that children can play safely near it.

5. Keep the back yard clear of all rubbish and broken bottles. It will be more attractive as well as a more healthful place for the children.

6. Don't dress children in flimsy cottons or costumes of net, brushed wool or rayon which flash fire dangerously.

7. Conduct a family fire drill regularly so that children will follow directions quietly in an emergency.

FIRST SPRING FASHION SHOW THIS SATURDAY

"The flowers that bloom in the spring, tra, la."

Will Milady's hat have buttons, bows, or posies, how long will her new suit be — and will it be flared or straight, are all questions which will be answered for Daly City fashion-minded ladies Saturday, March 26, when the Mothers' Club of Our Lady of Perpetual Help School holds its first Spring Fashion Show and luncheon.

The fashion show, which is being arranged by the United Air Lines and the Hales Brothers Grant avenue store, will be held in the school auditorium at 80 Wellington street. The luncheon will be served promptly at 1 p.m., with the fashion show following immediately.

Pension Money Lost By Local Woman

It's a long time between pension checks for Mrs. Emmett Priest of 128 Los Olivos avenue. And this month will probably seem a good deal longer.

Two weeks ago Mrs. Priest received her old-age pension check and cashed it. On her way home she lost her purse with the money and also her rosary in it. Retracing her steps, Mrs. Priest failed to find the purse.

It will be a long time, indeed, for Mrs. Priest waiting for her next check. But, still, she is more concerned about the loss of her rosary, for which she has a deep sentimental attachment, than the money which she needs so badly. She asks that the person who found her purse please return the rosary to her.

Church Nuptials For Beverly Rowe And Albert Hailer

A three o'clock nuptial ceremony performed by Rev. William Harberts in the Grace Presbyterian church united Miss Beverly Rowe and Robert Roy Hailer Sunday. Given in marriage by her father, Mrs. Hailer wore the traditional white satin gown. It was styled with a long train, a sweetheart neckline, a tight fitting bodice and a bustle. Her bouquet was of bouvardia and orchids. The bride's attendants were dressed in green gowns and carried yellow daffodils. Miss Chris Holcomb was the maid of honor while Alice Johnson was the bridesmaid.

Best man for his brother was Albert Hailer Jr., while Jack Dederman performed the best man's duties. Four-year-old Leland Rowe, brother of the bride, was the ringbearer. All the men, including Leland, wore tuxedos.

Over 200 people attended the reception which was held after the ceremony. The affair was held in the home of the bride's parents.

The couple is making their home at Duboce street in San Francisco following a wedding trip to Carmel.

Some People Would Knock Your Block Off . . .

What can you do with a penny?

Some people would knock your block off for one cent, while others would hold out for two.

You can buy a piece of gum with a penny, or pay the state sales tax. (You pay no city sales tax in Daly City.)

Or you could throw it into a wishing well, or put it into a scale at the drug store and get your weight and fortune both.

Or you could save it, which, more or less, brings us to the point of this article. We made a mistake in the Harry's Pastry Shop advertisement last week. In error we said that Danish pastry items were two for 15c when they should have been seven cents each (or two for 14c). Harry had lowered the price of these as well as many other items, and we had 'em at the old price.

So, if you want to save a penny, or maybe more, see Harry's Pastry Shop ad — and the other ads, too —in the second section of this issue.

Would Like To Buy Plenty At This Price

Harry's Market, located at 6524 Mission street, may feature low prices, but they aren't quite as low as the Record had them last week.

We erroneously priced two cans of apricots for 19 cents in Harry's ad last week — quite a bargain in any man's language. Our apologies for the error.

JEFFERSON HIGH GIRLS' SPORTS

By Claire Allen

Beginners' swimming tests are being given to about 150 girls by Miss Young. The life saving hasn't been started in sixth period by Miss Parent, but she is instructing a few girls in diving.

Six girls together with Mrs. Parkhurst attended the University of California play day Saturday, March 19. As they always do, the girls enjoyed themselves immensely, getting glimpses of riflery, badminton, basketball, swimming, and both square and modern dancing. The girls took part in the swimming and square dancing. The girls who attended were Jane Bernath, president, Beverly Stein, Claire Allen, Barbara Stein, Bobbie Carroll, and Shirley Bane. Jane Bernath gave a speech on the activities and procedure of our girls' sports system at Jefferson. Jeff was the only G.P.A.L. school to attend; the others belong to a G.A.A. system.

Tournaments are already in full swing in inter-period basketball. The girls have divided themselves into teams and have chosen quite original names.

Three teams are attending a play day at San Mateo Union High School April 2. Jeff will take down an A team in volleyball, a B team in basketball, and a C team in softball. This is one of the big play days of the year with all the peninsula schools sending A, B, C, and D teams. After the games there is usually some form of entertainment put on by the girls themselves.

A Legend
Why Birds Build Nests

LONG ago when the world was new, birds were not good at the business of nest building. Their nests were hodge-podge things of twigs and grass plastered with mud. The wind blew them apart and the rain soaked them.

But most of the birds were satisfied with their crude nests. Only the magpie wanted a different kind. She often carried away things that did not belong to her and she wanted a safe place to hide them from prying eyes. So she thought of a new kind of nest, round as a ball, strong and secret, with a door just the size of magpie herself.

First, the crow saw magpie's new nest. He carried the news to the other birds. They chattered loudly over the idea of a roof! They were so curious that the robin and the oriole went with the crow to see the wonderful new nest.

"Teach us to make a nest like yours?" they pleaded.

The magpie was delighted. "Poor stupid things!" she said. "Of course, I'll teach you."

• • •

So she sent the birds scurrying for twigs and grass and plenty of mud. "Choose a good place," she told them importantly. "A strong tree limb that the wind cannot sway."

"Good nests must swing and sway," the oriole said. "And they should always hang from the end of a branch."

"Am I the teacher or are you?" the magpie asked crossly.

The little ovenbird had just arrived to join the robin and the oriole. So she said humbly: "You are the teacher, magpie. Go on with the lesson."

"Very well," said the magpie. "Take some twigs and grasses and build a frame. Then plaster the frame with mud—"

"What's new about that?" the robin asked. "Robins always use mud."

The magpie lost her temper. "Cack! Cack! Cack!" she cried angrily. "If you know so much just go ahead and build a fine nest like mine! But don't ask me to teach you!"

• • •

SHE flew away into the forest.

The little ovenbird followed her crying timidly, "Teacher! Teacher! Teacher!" She followed the magpie until she, too, learned to build a nest with a roof, but she preferred to build her nest on the ground rather than in a tree.

If you ask the ovenbird who taught her to build her curious nest with its cover of mud and leaves, she will always answer, "Teacher! Teacher! Teacher!"

But because they would not learn, the other birds went on building the same kind of nests as before.

Even if you can make an introduction in the accepted, Emily Post manner, don't let it stop there. Spare your friends the distressing pause that always seems to follow the courteous, "How do you do." Mention the passion Jim has for stamp collecting, and the hobby that Harry is riding right now. It will put the new acquaintances at ease with each other. Soon enough everyone will be gabbing like life-long pals.

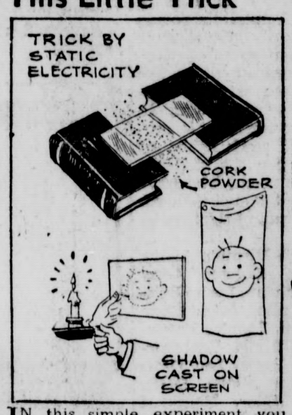
Electricity Does This Little Trick



IN this simple experiment you place a rectangle of glass on top of two thin books about three inches apart as shown in the diagram. In the space between the books sprinkle some cork powder made by filing an ordinary cork with a fine file. Rub the surface of the glass vigorously with a piece of silk and presto! the cork powder jumps up and sticks to the glass just as iron filings fly to a magnet.

This experiment can be turned into a smart magical trick if you first dip your finger in some glycerin (or other sticky substance that will not dry quickly) and outline on the glass a comic face.

Now hang a large sheet of white paper on the wall and tell your friends you are going to project a picture on the screen simply by rubbing the glass. Place the glass on the books between which are your cork filings and proceed to rub it with the piece of silk until the cork powder jumps up and sticks to the glass.

At this stage of the trick, turn out the lights and hold the magic glass up in front of the screen a few inches away from it. Then ask someone to light a candle you have in readiness and advance with it slowly towards the glass. When in the right position, the candle will throw on the screen a shadow of the funny face you have drawn on the glass with glycerin.

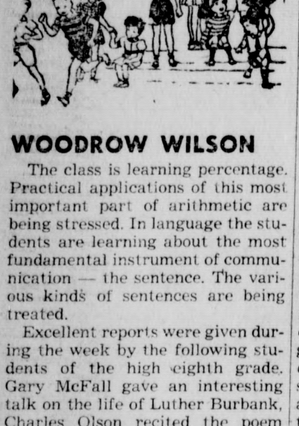
NEWS FROM THE SCHOOLS



WOODROW WILSON

The class is learning percentage. Practical applications of this most important part of arithmetic are being stressed. In language the students are learning about the most fundamental instrument of communication — the sentence. The various kinds of sentences are being treated.

Excellent reports were given during the week by the following students of the high eighth grade. Gary McFall gave an interesting talk on the life of Luther Burbank, Charles Olson recited the poem "Trees," Pauline Lugliano spoke on the meaning of conservation.

Ardene Wilder, a student of the high eighth grade transferred to Los Angeles. Her classmates will miss her as she was well liked by all of them.

The students of the low and high sixth grades are studying about Guam, Midway, Wake, and the Samoan Islands. They are learning the locations and the importance of these islands to the United States. A stillfilm, "Across the Pacific," showed the students the flight of an airplane to each of these islands. The American government uses these islands as airplane, ship, and cable stations. The sixth graders are also drawing illustrations and writing essays about the formation of coal. The readers of the prose and poetry group have memorized Sir Walter Scott's poem, "The Lady of the Last Minstrel." They are now learning to do choral reading of this poem. These students are Linda Amundsen, Darlene Haynes, Richard Hopman, Lenita Johnson, Marilyn Jones, Marlene Logelin, Lorna Perrier, James Rector, James Snell, and Arlene Trapp.

The low and high seventh students are studying the contributions of ancient Greece to our modern civilization.

The Crocker honor roll is extra heavy! Students from all the rooms have enthusiastically affixed their names to the sign-up sheet. Students whose names appear on the honor roll, are those who have received all satisfactory grades in not only academic work, but in personal, social, and work habits as well. Following are the students from the various rooms who have had the privilege through their effort and cooperation of signing the honor roll:

Rebuilding the vanishing forests of California, has been the major interest and objective of the Crocker student body this past week, as they have actively engaged in the "Penny for a Pine" drive. The students are voluntarily contributing their pennies today for the protection of their own future resources tomorrow. These contributions are awakening in pupils the desire to participate fully, not only in their own immediate community activities, but in the activities of a state community enterprise.

The 5th and 6th grades of Crocker School are competing with their upper grade classmates in the American Legion Auxiliary Essay Contest by participating and writing themes on "Our American Way of Life." Integrated with the language arts, one of the fundamentals of the curriculum, teachers and students feel these contests afford a further incentive to stimulate them to apply the specifics of learning to a life situation, as well as partcipate in a community activity sponsored by adults who are profoundly and earnestly interested in public education and the future citizens of tomorrow.

The pupils of the H5 and L5 grades won the "Thrift Banner" last week.

The H5 and L6 enjoyed, in connection with their social studies unit, California Today, a movie on the development of flags. The L6 is beginning work on the addition and subtraction of unlike fractions.

The L6 and H6 of Room 4 are having a series of verbal reports on the islands of the Pacific. Three or four pupils sometimes talk on the same island, each one presenting a different phase of the life there. This is followed by questions from the entire class and the discussion leaders often have a hard time answering them. Robert Pool led an excellent and lively discussion on tuna fishing.

The girls A and B teams are just beginning a handball tournament.

Pupils of the L7 in Room 5 culminated their work with fractions and are now ready to begin work with decimals.

In social studies, the L-7 has travelled through Italy, visiting Rome and Venice. They have learned that the Venicians produce such things as beads, silks, jewelry, and linens. Each country and each city has contributed to civilization. Rome has done its share in government, religion, and the structure of fine roads, as well as contributing to science.

Beverly Broadbent has entered H7 from Horace Mann Jr. high.

The L8 was introduced to the metric system this week. They are now learning how complicated our English system of measurements is compared with the decimal system.

GIRL SCOUTS

Reports on the open house celebration of the Girl Scouts' 37th Birthday from the various Girl Scout houses throughout Daly City, Colma, and Bayshore indicated overwhelming success.

Open house was held from 2 to 4 p.m. Saturday, March 12, the birthday of Girl Scouts.

With the Juliette Low Friendship fund as the theme each scout house held a Silver tea and displayed their crafts made during the year. The girls donned costumes which they had made themselves, representing various foreign countries.

Funds collected will be sent to the National Headquarters for the Juliette Low World Friendship fund. Mrs. Hilda Heagney is Juliette Low chairman for Daly City-Colma Girl Scout council.

It was also announced last week that Mrs. Heagney has been nominated as a candidate by the Federation of Girl Scout councils of Northern San Mateo County to be considered for a Juliette Low World Friendship fund scholarship from Region 12, to the International conference to be held the latter part of August at Camp Edith Mary in New York. No one in this area has ever met the requirements necessary for the scholarship.

Troops participating at the Peoria Scout house included Brownie Troops 7 and 11 and Scout Troops 1, 5, and 14. The girls were dressed in costumes representing China, Japan, Ireland, Mexico, etc.

Girl Scouts of Bayshore entertained 200 guests at their Silver Tea honoring Juliette Low, who founded Girl Scouting 37 years ago.

Decorations and invitations were made by Troops 42 and 43. The log and candles were the centerpiece for the table.

Coffee, tea and cookies were made and served by the girls.

Troop 42 won the contest for collecting the largest amount for the Juliette Low fund. Their prize for that honor will be to present the money to the chairman, Mrs. Heagney, at a party they are planning.

Brownie Troops 10, 13, 18, which met at the Colma Community Center in Colma, presented a program starting with the Pledge of Allegiance, followed by the Brownie Pledge, Brownie song, and Brownie Smile song. Marilyn Toole told about the Juliette Low and the Friendship fund. Troop 18 did a card stunt with cards spelling out Juliette Low. Troop 13, dressed in the costumes they made, danced and sang to "My Name Is Queen Mary," "Swinging in a Swing" and "Pussy Willow." They were accompanied by Mrs. Jean Cyr.

Brownie Troop No. 10, Brownies and Intermediate Troop No. 17 presented a fly-up ceremony and investiture. The girls who flew up into Intermediate Troop 17 were Roberta Banducci, Barbara Kaus, Helen Markel, LaVerna Nannini, Janice Prater, Sandra Stanghellini, Corrine Young, Georgiann Cole, Carol Lee Bruce, Carol Hansen.

A craft table was on display. Tea was served by Mrs. M. Pauline Brown and Mrs. Jean O'Rourke.

Troops participating at Girl Scout house, 101 Parkview avenue, were 2, 3, 4, 6, 8, 9, 12, 15, and 16. Ireland, China, Holland, Arabia, Hawaii and America were represented and used for theme. The girls were dressed in costumes representing these countries and also made colorful napkins of various designs.

The girls showed their skills by baking cookies and their own birthday cake.

A Girl Scout law — "A Girl Scout is a friend to All" — was observed when the girls brought the cookies to the Villa Sanitarium and shared them with the patients.

$50,000 Building Will Be Built For Weather Bureau

The weatherman for the United States Weather Bureau is going to keep out of the rain with a new $50,000 building that will be under construction within a few weeks at Mills Field, according to officials of the airport.

The new building will furnish adequate quarters for the consolidated forecast center, which serves the entire area of northern California. It will be an addition at the north end of the present administration building.

It's Quite A Problem To Sell Cars In Alaska

You have to be a shrewd buyer of dried fish, gold dust and furs to sell automobiles in Fairbanks, Alaska, a hundred miles south of the Arctic Circle.

Dan Lhamon, the farthest-north Ford dealer, finds that his experience of 20 years in the Sub Arctic stands him in good stead in selling cars in frigid temperatures that drop to 60 degrees below zero.

When trappers come in with furs, Lhamon carefully examines the pelts and checks market prices to see how much marten, mink, silver fox and muskrat will be worth toward a new car.

For the Eskimo trade, he samples "Squaw Candy" by taste to decide how much he can allow for the smoked salmon strips.

When prospectors enter his business with pokes of gold dust to buy an auto Lhamon must be prepared to estimate the exchange rate.

He also was forced to cope with the delivery problem as the recent longshoremen's strike on the West Coast left him without autos. He devised two methods to meet the situation.

The first was rather expensive, but when a sourdough decided he wanted a car, money sometimes was secondary. The purchaser had the new car flown in from the Pacific Coast by DC-4 at an extra transportation fee of around $1,000.

Lhamon's other method of meeting the strike situation was to fly prospective buyers to a warehouse on the Pacific Coast, from which point the buyer would drive the new car back over the Alcan Highway.

"You have to be a bit versatile to sell autos up here," Lhamon admits, "but like Robert Service has pointed out — this country kind of gets a grip on you."

Reception Given To Honor Golden Wedding Anniv.

A gold and white color scheme was used in decorating the Colma home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman (Louise) Siemund for the reception given them Saturday in honor of their golden wedding anniversary.

Over 75 members of the couple's family, their relatives, and close friends attended the reception at their home on Lisbon street. Among them were the couple's three daughters, Mrs. Frieda Heinzle, 60 Mateo avenue, Daly City; Mrs. Edith Benedetti, of Colma, and Mrs. Louise Kusber, 56 Werner avenue, Daly City. Also present at the celebration were the Siemunds' 11 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren, giving representation to four generations.

The anniversary cake, baked by Harry's Pastry Shop, was topped by a horse shoe for good luck. Other decorations included yellow dafodils and acacia.

Mrs. Siemund, age 69, was presented with a gold lapel watch by her daughters, friends and relatives. Mr. Siemund, 76, was given a gold knife. Many other lovely gifts were received.

The couple, both natives of Germany, were married March 19, 1899, at St. Johns Lutheran Church in San Francisco. Pastor Schraeder officiated at the ceremony which was witnessed by the late Lena Hermann, Otto Rettig and Herman Beneke. The couple had two children, besides their daughters. They were Ernest Siemund and Hermina Napier, both deceased.

Mr. and Mrs. Siemund have lived in Colma for 48 years on Lisbon street. Siemund, a retired gardener, had worked at the Mt. Olivet Memorial Park in Colma for 35 years.

More Telephones

A higher number of telephones per capita were newly installed in San Mateo county during the past two years than in any other bay area county, excepting San Francisco, according to a survey by the San Francisco bay area council.

The survey shows that 55,114 telephones were in use in San Mateo county at the start of 1949 as compared with 41,062 in January, 1947, a 35 per cent gain.

Entertainment for the veterans in the closed ward at the Palo Alto Veterans' hospital was furnished on St. Patrick's Day by members of the Old Glory Post 2044, V.F.W. Auxiliary.

Members helping to entertain the veterans were Mesdames Bonny Ellingwood, Jessie Hutchinson, June Willey, Ethel Dorn, Evelyn Smith, Mary Roberts, Margaret Johnson, Catherine McKeown, Mary Conti and Clara Poket. Refreshments were served.

There are 3,746 Red Cross chapters with branches in the United States, ready to serve the public at all times. GIVE TO THE RED CROSS.

San Bruno And South San Francisco Plan Sewage Disposal Plant

Final details of a $1 million sewage disposal plant for South San Francisco and San Bruno were to have been worked out at a joint session of the two city councils this week.

Exact share of the cost to be borne by each city had not been determined prior to the scheduled meeting, but it was expected that the South San Francisco portion will be the largest because of its greater population and vast industrial area.

Indications are that residents of the two cities may vote on a bond issue for the project this summer. The joint sewage disposal plant will be built on the old Belair shipyard site just east of the old Bayshore highway, north of the airport.

Nearly two years ago the state took measures that prohibit dumping of sewage in the bay, but these two cities have permission to do so until the new plant is built.

Social Security Payments Due To Many Past 65

Many persons in San Mateo county who are past 65 are failing to apply for Old Age Insurance, according to Edward J. Foley, manager of the San Mateo Social Security Administration at 42 North B street. Residents of San Mateo county who are 65 and who either have been paying in on social security, or have received death payments previously should contact that office to determine what payment may be due.

"Many widows and parents have received lump-sum payments on the death of a husband or child," Foley said, "and further payments may be due when they reach 65. Thus, even if such a person doesn't have a social security card, monthly payments at 65 might be paid if applied for.

"Also, wage earners reaching 65 should at least inquire then about their social security accounts. It is surprising how many past 65 who aren't working, or working on jobs not covered by social security, haven't applied for their retirement payments. By coming in and talking it over they will know if payments can now be made, and if still working and paying in on social security, they will be advised of just what is necessary to get the payments started when they aren't working.

"Many feel that if they are drawing unemployment compensation or disability insurance from the state, that they cannot get Old Age or Survivors' Insurance also. In this state both can be drawn at the same time by qualified persons.

The San Mateo office at 42 North B street is open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday and the phone number is DIamond 4-6803. Contact service is available each Thursday in Redwood City at the courthouse from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. At South San Francisco contact service is available at the State Employment Office on the 2nd and 3rd Wednesday each month from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m., and at Daly City at the city hall from 2 p.m. to 3 p.m. on the same day.

WELCOME STRANGER! Bing Crosby, a stranger in town, gets an enthusiastic welcome from lovely Joan Caulfield in Paramount's "Welcome Stranger," at the Crest Theatre Sunday and Monday. Bing and Miss Caulfield co-star with Barry Fitzgerald in the film, the first reunion of Crosby and Fitzgerald since the memorable "Going My Way."

PYRAMID LAKE

Pyramid Lake, located in the desert 37 miles northeast of Reno, is reported to be unlike any other lake in the world. It is 30 miles long, 12 miles wide, and 3,783 feet above sea level. Trout weighing up to 50 pounds are taken from its clear, deep waters, and gulls and pelicans swarm over it by the thousands.

CAUTION AT THE CROSSROADS

Those places in our highway system where roads meet and cross are places of danger for the motorist, declares the National Automobile Club. If he would keep himself safe, he should use caution at the crossroads.

Announce Change In P. O. Procedure

In order to simplify the handling of copies of newspapers, magazines and other periodical publications of the second class, certain changes have been placed in effect by the Post Office Department, so announced Acting Postmaster John F. Fixa.

Under the new instructions, the individual subscriber will notify the publisher of any change of address on a card provided by the post office, which is made available by your letter carrier or may be secured at your nearest post office. Only a 1c stamp need be affixed to the card.

In the case of a local change of address at offices having city or village delivery service, there will not be any additional postage required for the forwarding of mail.

On out of town changes it will be necessary for the patron to guarantee the payment of forwarding postage on all classes of mail they desire to have forwarded, with the exception of first class mail, which is forwarded without additional fee.

Before moving, Mr. Fixa suggests you talk to your carrier or station clerk for complete information.

Buri Buri Residents Ask For Stop Signal

Rancho Buri Buri wants a traffic signal at the intersection of Arroyo drive and El Camino Real to halt accidents that happen almost regularly there, and the residents are getting up a petition to Assemblyman Richard Dolwig to get something done about it.

The idea of traffic controls had been stymied by B. Geddes of the state division of highways at a meeting of the South San Francisco planning commission this week when he said he could not recommend a signal unless it could be shown that 250 cars passed the spot each hour for a period of eight hours.

Lloyd C. Simpson, developer of Buri Buri, said that few, if any, of the 20-odd locations of signals along the highway between San Francisco and San Mateo had that much traffic.

Unless something is done immediately about putting a signal up, Simpson said, more people may be killed in traffic accidents. Several persons have already been killed at the intersection and many have been injured.

Geddes seemed to think that Buri Buri should wait until South San Francisco extends Chestnut avenue to the highway and Buri Buri builds a road to connect up with it. Then the signal could be placed at the intersection of Chestnut and El Camino, he claimed.

"How many more accidents will we have if we wait till then," Simpson asked.

Sports Events At San Mateo Jaysee Are Rained Out

Still rained out of its usual numerous sports events; San Mateo Junior College finds its athletes marking time and getting practice whenever the rains will let up and the athletic fields dry off a bit.

The college radio students are giving programs over the air, presenting short humorous skits, serious programs, and dramatical shows under the direction of Richard Marsh. Meanwhile Harry Keats is continuing rehearsals for the production of the term play, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay."

The college engineering club is planning its annual alumni dinner for April 22, with a dinner and program planned for the former club members.

Monday evening, March 28, C. Edward Graves of Carmel will give an illustrated lecture at the college on the Yellowstone National Park. This is the second in the series of lectures being given by Mr. Graves, who spent one entire summer getting pictures of the park.

The junior college students will send two of their officers to the annual California Junior College Student Government Conference, which, this year, will be held at Santa Rosa Junior College. Colleges from the whole state will be represented.

The county historical association museum located at the junior college has opened up new enlarged quarters and added to its collection of articles from early California periods. The museum is open to the public afternoons Monday through Friday and Thursday evenings from seven-thirty to nine-thirty.

For Happy Dinners

A good dinner served amid peaceful surroundings and in an atmosphere of security is no small contribution to family life. Keep the table-talk constructive and mix with the baked beans and angel cake plenty of love, laughter, and understanding.

Three hundred and sixty-five hours of service were given to patients in hospitals by the Gray Ladies of the San Mateo County Chapter, American Red Cross, during the past month. GIVE TO THE RED CROSS.

The Ref Packs a Punch

Jack Dempsey, former world's heavyweight boxing champ, cocks a mean-looking right as the Golden Terror makes menacing advances during a dispute over a ruling in wrestling matches at Atlanta, Ga. Referee Dempsey, who used to put able-bodied men away with the gloves, knows how to take care of himself among the groaners.

A Galloping Genie

Modern genie known to steelmen as the continuous rolling mill usually picks up slabs of steel at a speed of four and a half miles an hour. Less than two minutes later it reels them off in the form of ribbons at 20 to 25 miles an hour. Higher speeds are frequently attained, however, and the type of steel sheet that ends up as tin cans has been known to travel a mile a minute.

Hessian Fly Again

Wheat jointworm, ranking next to Hessian fly as causing heavy losses to the wheat crop, was present in many fields this past season. The areas most heavily infested were southern Illinois, central and southern Indiana, southwestern Ohio, Kentucky, and several localities in Missouri. The department of agriculture is warning farmers to make use of known control measures to avoid severe and widespread infestations in 1949.

Removing Stains

If you are not sure about the cause of a stain in clothes or linens, it is best to apply the mildest treatment first in removing it.

Indians Named 'Em

From the Indians and Spaniards Colorado takes many names for its towns, rivers and mountains, such as Sangre de Cristo, blood of Christ; Colorado, color red; San Juan, St. John; Cimarron, wild or unruly; Culebra, snake; Cucharas, spoon; Pueblo, Indian village; Rio Grande, grand river; La Veta, the vein; La Junta, the junction.

Clothes Hangers

If clothes to be stored are hung on hangers, it is best to use wooden hangers for the purpose, because they hold shoulders in better shape.

Steaks, Raw, Broiled

A steak has a different odor when it is raw than when it is broiled and this is due to chemical changes caused by the heat.

Radar and Storms

Radar was used during the war to "see" electrically the planes and ships of friends and foe in daylight, darkness or fog, far beyond the range of the human eye. With its radar a ship could navigate into a harbor in a pea-soup fog. Today scientists are using radar to map and study storms in a 200-mile circle around a weather station at Wilmington, Ohio.

City College Looks For Championship Baseball Team

With three championship teams for City College of San Francisco to its credit, including football, basketball, and boxing, baseball coach Bill Fisher is not making any predictions but hopes to weld together another championship team.

He makes no predictions because the league has been changed with the entrance of Modesto, Monterey, Stockton and Salinas, all good baseball clubs.

The team boasts several good hitters but the sixty-four-dollar question at this time is whether the pitching staff will be able to carry the load.

Five returning veterans promising to be key men in his plans include Tom Bournellis, third sacker; Ray White, first baseman; Rod Losberger and Bob Payne, outfield; Bob Friedman and Emmet Lynch, shortstop.

To go along with the veterans will be several first-year men who show promise. They are John Burkhead, catcher; Decker, second base; Jack Bukowatz, shortstop; head, catcher; Curtis Decker, second base; Jack Bukowatz, shortstop; Bob Arata, outfield; Jim McGovern and Don Keifer, pitcher. Coach Fisher has hopes of finding more material for his squad in the newcomers trying out for the team.

Peaceful International Line

On the Great Lakes, only Michigan comes entirely within U. S. territory. Superior, Huron, Erie and Ontario are divided at the center by a peaceful international line which, on water or land, is one of the most easily crossed borders on earth.

For An Onion Flavor

Next time you are making sandwiches, slip the knife with which you are slicing tomatoes into an onion several times while slicing each tomato. This will give a delicate onion flavor, but the onion taste will not be strong enough to be unpleasant.

First Packer

First meat packing house in the United States was founded in 1641 by William Pynchon, at Springfield, Mass. Pynchon's plant packed pork in salt for shipment to the West Indies.

"Injun Summer"

Indians believed that the masses of red in the autumn trees was from the blood of the Great Bear slain by celestial hunters.

"HEAP BIG SHOW" — That's what Chief Needahbeh, Penobscot Indian master-of-ceremonies at the Northern California Sportsmen's & Vacation Show, appears to be telling lovely Ann Curtis, San Francisco's world's swimming queen who'll perform on the final seven days of the versatile extravaganza opening a ten-day run March 25 in the immense Cow Palace. Vicki Manalo Draves, two-time Olympic Games diving champ, will be a featured star during the first three days.

Red Cross Disaster Committee Meets

The Red Cross Disaster committee, headed by Chairman R. C. Pitcairn, met last week at the Red Cross chapter headquarters, 260 Primrose road, Burlingame. The group completed tentative plans for meeting an emergency in case of an earthquake. Present was Richard Gordon, director of Red Cross disaster service for the Western United States.

Joseph Francouer, is chairman of the clothing committee; John W. Leahy, chairman of the food committee; and Miss Jane Taylor, chairman of registration and information committee.

Members of key committees included Mrs. R. L. Crane of Daly City. Others are: Mrs. E. J. Koster, Brisbane; Mrs. N. Adler, South San Francisco;

Ellis R. Benson, Half Moon Bay; Dorothy Williamson, Pescadero; Mrs. James Allen, La Honda; Mrs. C. Geyser, Sharp Park, Pedro Point, Vallimar, Salada Beach, Rockaway Beach; Mrs. Harold Gilbert, Burlingame; Mrs. Sydney Weinstock, San Mateo.

"DISINFLATION"

Dr. Edwin G. Nourse, President Truman's chief economic adviser, has come up with the term "disinflation" to describe his view of the current price decline. He says the change is a healthy one and will not lead to trouble unless the public gets jittery and causes the downtrend to "snowball into a recession."

Many other leading economists and businessmen have also emphasized the importance of the public attitude in relation to the economic trend. The situation is somewhat like that in a crowded theatre. The exits are ample to let the people out quite rapidly without harm to anyone. But let a few individuals lose their heads and start yelling and there may be a stampede.

Considerable responsibility for an orderly decline also rests with the national Administration. Insistence on measures, such as the proposed $4 billion tax increase, that tend to harass businessmen and investors, and the continuation of the stiff limitations on installment credit — these things can do much to unsettle our economy.

The proposed tax boost is certainly not encouraging increased capital investments which are necessary for the creation of new jobs. And the present installment regulations are definitely responsible for the layoff of thousands of workers. This is especially true in the automotive field where there has been a marked drop in the sale of medium priced cars due to the heavy down payment and monthly installments necessary under the law.

If the economic applecart is not to be upset Washington had better exercise a little of the common sense it expects of Main Street.

SAFETY ZONE CAUTION

The presence of a safety zone for pedestrians at street car stops, wide street intersections, or elsewhere, does not give the motorist the right to travel past such points at undiminished speeds, warns the National Automobile Club. The rule that he may pass without coming to a halt is modified by the requirement that the car shall proceed only at such speed as permits full control of it by the driver in the face of any exigency that may arise.

Eighty-one study visitors from 43 countries came to the United States as American Red Cross study visitors to study blood programs, Junior Red Cross, Nursing Service, Fund Raising, Public Relations, Volunteer Service and General Administration. GIVE TO THE RED CROSS.

WHEN DRIVING AT NIGHT

Many motorists prefer to do their long distance driving, or part of it, at night, declares the National Automobile Club. The preference is based upon the fact that traffic is lighter and the glaring sunlight is absent. While these assumptions are correct, several other aspects of the subject are worthy of consideration. One is that it is easier to fall asleep, doze, or relax on a deserted road than on one where traffic presents a constant stimulus to wakefulness. Another fact to consider is that maximum driving speeds should be lower than in the daytime because of greatly reduced visibility.

BEST TRAFFIC IDEA

The "Stop" sign may be a nuisance to the motorist when it interferes with his progress along the side street or secondary road, but it is outstanding among modern traffic control devices in the opinion of the National Automobile Club. It saves many more stops than it requires in the life of the average driver.

Without its protecting presence at the entrance to the main trunk line and boulevard, users of these main ways, who comprise the bulk of the traffic, would be required to slow down at all intersections and stop at many of them. This is an angle of the "Stop" signs existence that receives altogether too little attention.

Notice to All Tax Payers of San Mateo County

Olivia de Havilland Superb in Darryl F. Zanuck's 'Snake Pit' Daring, Dramatic Masterpiece

Darryl F. Zanuck's presentation of "The Snake Pit," which will be playing at the Daly City Theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, March 27, 28 and 29, is a motion picture that is destined to rank as one of Hollywood's finest efforts. Based on Mary Jane Ward's best-selling novel, the film is a realistic portrayal of a compelling love story . . . an emotional drama on a rare and pregnant theme.

"The Snake Pit" is great entertainment. For in addition to the love story, there is pathos, sympathy, understanding and emotion. It has all these, plus humor and faith, the striving for security and mental calm which combine into one all-encompassing, beautifully produced motion picture.

In the able hands of Director Anatole Litvak, who with Robert Bassler co-produced the film, the story moves swiftly, surely through a series of carefully contrived flashbacks which tell the compelling story of Virginia Cunningham. Tracing the insidious forces that lead to her breakdown, the film honestly and accurately pictures Virginia's experiences inside a hospital where a successful attempt is made to restore her normal place in society.

Olivia de Havilland's performance as Virginia is brilliant. It is a portrayal that has fire, force and compelling drive, marking her as the screen's outstanding dramatic actress. Her complete mastery of the demanding role marks a climax to her distinguished career.

Leo Genn is perfectly cast as the kindly and idealistic Dr. Kik, while Mark Stevens contributes his finest work to date as Miss de Havilland's understanding husband. Celeste Holm, as a friend of Olivia, contributes a compelling portrayal while Glenn Langran turns in still another smooth and convincing performance.

The cast, which reads like a who's who in the world of entertainment, is superb. Included are Helen Craig, Leif Erickson, Beulah Bondi, Lee Patrick, Howard Freeman, Natalie Schafer, Ruth Donnelly, Katherine Locke, Frank Conroy and Minna Gombell.

The authors of the screenplay, Frank Partos and Millen Brand, deserve praise far beyond that accorded most adaptors. They have accomplished an outstanding work of compression and clarification without losing the essence of the original.

"The Snake Pit" rates with the best . . . it is a "must see" for every list.

Texas Gaining Industry Fast

Houston, Tex., is the center of the nation's fastest growing industrial area. There, in 1946-'47, more than 80 million dollars was invested in plants as against 69 million in the New York area. On a per capita basis this amounts to $106 against $5.40 for New York and $14 for Los Angeles, according to Pathfinder.

Johnson Smeared Congress

In 1866, President Andrew Johnson said: "We have seen hanging upon the verge of the government, as it were, a body called, or which assumes to be, the congress of the United States." The people responded to this smear by electing a strong anti-Johnson congress, which two years later brought impeachment proceedings against the President.

FAMILY-STYLE VACATIONS FOR CAL. ALUMNI

Alumni of the University of California will have a choice of two mountain camps for their family-style summer vacations this year, Robert Sibley, executive manager of the California Alumni association, announced yesterday.

The "Lair of the Golden Bear" near Lake Shasta, first camp in the nation to be opened by a group of university graduates, will be conducted for a second year, Sibley said, while a similar program of recreation combined with talks by outstanding professors will be carried on at a new camp at Pinecrest near Strawberry lake.

"Each of these camps will have distinctive characteristics," he pointed out, "but both will be operated in the same general manner so successful last summer in the first year at Shasta. Both will be staffed by California students and alumni with university professors and coaches present to give informal talks concerning the life and work of the university today."

Both camps have swimming pools adjacent to the tents and cabins with easy access to the nearby lakes for boating and fishing. Meals are served in community dining halls. Cooperative nurseries enable parents to bring their children and still participate in the recreational program.

The Shasta "Lair" is located 22 miles north of Redding on Highway 99 at an elevation of 1600 feet. The new Pinecrest "Lair" is 30 miles east of Sonora on the Sonora pass road at an elevation of 5600 feet.

Alumni of the state university may obtain information on the camps by writing the California Alumni Association, 301 Stephens Union, Berkeley 4.

If Birds Quit Laying

Although a positive diagnosis of Newcastle disease can be made only by laboratory tests, there is plenty of reason to suspect this malady if egg production in a flock dips sharply—nearly to zero. A veterinary bulletin points out that a drastic drop in egg production, whether due to Newcastle disease or some other type of trouble, should be a warning for poultrymen to get a prompt diagnosis and start corrective measures at once. If the trouble is actually Newcastle disease, respiratory and nervous symptoms usually will be evident.

HI-LITES AT C.C.S.F

By Roy Hurlbert

Midterm week is to be climaxed tonight with the AMS dance to be staged in the west campus auditorium. This is the second shindig of the semester sponsored by this group and certainly comes at a welcome interval. There's nothing worse than five days of tests and exams without a breather.

Official registration figures, exact in detail were released recently by Mary Jane Leanard college registrar. Miss Leanard revealed that a survey showed that a slight decrease in attendance under last fall's enrollment. There are 5,194 students now attending as compared to 5,224 last term. Thirty-five per cent of the former number are former GI's who are receiving their schooling courtesy of Uncle Sam. First semester students total 1200 with 20 per cent of them veterans.

Two publications which are slowly being organized for issue in May and June are Ram-Pages, the institution's first yearbook, and the Forum, annual literary organ. The yearbook, a pictorial review of campus highlights and graduation particulars, is much in demand with an expected 1500 copies already spoken for. Faculty advisers Dorothy Mercer and John Mercer, history instructor, have set the deadline date for contributions in the form of original humor, prose, poetry, or short stories at April 8. This gathering of cultural writings by City College's future authors and writers has always been very successful in past years in view of the satisfaction therein found. The layout staff includes Roy McCoy, editor; Dick Brennan, David Hansen, and Dayton Lawson, all qualified penmen in their own right.

The recreational leadership program offered under the direction of Jules Fraden produced some 85 applicants for playground directorship recently with the San Francisco Civil Service Commission. The course offered as a major here during a two-year period fills all the necessary requirements for the sought after positions which are high salaried. According to listing, the college is recommended for the fulfillment of basic subjects leading to qualifying for the jobs.

ATHLETIC DOINGS

Washed out in their scheduled opener with Modesto here last week, Coach Bill Fischer's baseball nine motors to Monterey tomorrow for a delayed NCJCC start against Monterey J.C.'s diamondmen in a twin bill. The Rams didn't get much of a loosening up campaign similar to spring training, for rain held them to a few warmup tilts. Their most impressive triumph to date was a 4-1 victory over SF State's veteran squad which is rated the team to beat in the Far Western loop.

ODDS AND ENDS

The Alumni Association extended a formal invitation to his honor Mayor Robinson to attend their forthcoming dinner and entertainment which is set for Thursday, the 31st.

Sore Eye Department: A tidy lump sum of 260 dollars was donated to St. Mathews Church of San Mateo a few days back, to make amends for damages inflicted by over-ardent Ram rooters whose vandalism got the best of them during the fall grid sessions. The dough takes care of a paint job made apparent after the invasion.

Twin Bridge Southern Bridge Controversy Rages

San Francisco was sharply divided this week on whether it was plugging for a parallel twin bridge across San Francisco Bay to Oakland, or a southern crossing recommended by the Army - Navy board of engineers some time ago.

Mayor Elmer E. Robinson, reiterating his stand for the southern crossing, had support for it from San Francisco's board of supervisors and Congressman Franck R. Havenner and Richard Welch of San Francisco and George P. Miller of Alameda.

Meanwhile, the Chamber of Commerce reversed its previous declared stand and came out with a recommendation that the City accept the proposals of Public Works Director Charles H. Purcell and his chief engineer, Ralph Tudor, for the so-called "carbon-copy" bridge.

Proponents for the southern crossing stressed again the problems of San Francisco's already congested downtown traffic and the interests of national defense which, according to Congressman Havenner, "demand dispersement of bay crossings." The Atomic Energy Commission was reported of the opinion an A-bomb, hitting one parallel bridge, would demolish the other.

Meanwhile, Governor Warren announced at a Sacramento press conference that the California Toll Bridge Authority will decide upon location of a second Bay crossing "in a matter of weeks, perhaps sooner."

Ike Drafted

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, former Army chief of staff who graduated to the presidency of Columbia University, has been returned to temporary duties in the National Defense Department in Washington. Eisenhower will serve as "principal military adviser and consultant" to President Truman and Secretary of Defense Forrestal for several weeks. He will preside over meetings of the joint chiefs of staff.

Integrity carries more weight than big words. The dealers who advertise in the Used Car Bargain Counter are respected members of the community.

State To Continue Record Growth

If the forecast of William A. Spurr, professor of statistics in the Stanford Graduate School of Business, comes true, San Francisco will have 100,000 more mouths to feed in 1960 than it had last year—and California will have four million more appetites to satisfy by that time.

On the other hand, Prof. Spurr revealed that while the State's population is pegged for a forty per cent boost, production over the same period is slated to climb fifty per cent, thus more than off-setting any possibility of a "recession" or "depression" in the State's economic well being.

Prof. Spurr, who pointed out that this population forecast exceeds earlier official forecasts by at least half a million, predicted an even more rapid rate of growth in the State's economic output.
